

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

DL. XXVI.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1904.

NO. 99;

Present For Her!

Only Three Weeks Until

...Christmas...

And you ought to be thinking of what you'll give her for Christmas. More and more people are getting away from the idea of giving useless presents. Costly trinkets are pretty to look at, but have no value in usefulness. It is the fashion now for a Holiday gift to express somewhat of the good judgment of the giver. Just now the most acceptable and useful gift from a gentleman to a lady is

A Nice Fur.

All cloaks are made without collars, making it absolutely necessary for a lady to have a fur to be comfortable in winter.

3 CASES IN THE CITY.

Total of 168 Cases Now Remain in Various Hospitals Under Treatment.

The exact truth as the Kentuckian sees it in the smallpox situation is as follows:

| | |
|------------------------------|-----|
| In Concord colored hospital | 117 |
| " Gracey, " | 66 |
| In Workhouse white " | 6 |
| Quarantined in City | 4 |
| Reported yesterday at Julien | 3 |

| | |
|----------------------|-----|
| Total in county | 196 |
| Discharged yesterday | 28 |

| | |
|-----------------|-----|
| Remaining cases | 168 |
|-----------------|-----|

If this is not a true and correct exhibit, it is because the Kentuckian has been misled.

The only new cases reported yesterday were 3 at the Stowe farm at Julien. They will be taken to Gracey.

At Concord 28 cases were marked for dismissal yesterday. At Gracey a dozen or more will be let out in a day or two. Few of those confined are sick enough to be in bed.

Many will be discharged next week, a majority of the cases.

The totals look formidable, but they represent an improved situation. They are doing no harm where they are. Before, they were walking around and spreading the disease.

It is said there are 100 cases in Trigg county. Five are near Gracey and nothing is being done by the Trigg county authorities, so far as known at Gracey.

There have been in all four deaths at Concord, none since Dec. 2. There have been 8 deaths in all.

The only severe case in the city is that of Maxey Blythe, a white boy. He has been very ill, but is now better. The two other city cases are mild.

The Kentuckian will suppress none of the facts until the epidemic is over. Hopkinsville is today the safest part of Christian county, in spite of false reports.

Six in White Hospital.

There are six cases in the white hospital east of the city. These are J. B. Redmond, John Heath, a boy named Johnson, Grover Morris and two county patients. All are doing well. Outside the hospital there are three cases and two or three convalescents not quite ready for release. All are carefully quarantined.

Latest From Gracey.

Gracey, Ky., Dec. 7.—The smallpox scare here has caused a suspension of the schools, white and colored. A large vacant house outside the town has been rented for a hospital and the negro cabins heretofore used will be vacated and released from quarantine.

The grand total of 66 cases in the hospital was reached yesterday and this is all known of except some over the county line in Trigg. That county seems to be asleep and Dr. McCormack should give it a stirring up. One Trigg county case is at Mr. C. S. Coleman's, in sight of Gracey. Dr. Crowe is doing fine work and everybody is praising him for the way he went about controlling the disease. No public gatherings of any kind are permitted. It is expected that 10 or 12 negroes will be discharged this week and probably twice as many next week. The county is paying $50 a month for the house and $10 a month each for the board of inmates. We are now running on a basis of more than $1,000 a month, including the physician's services.

ANOTHER NEW TRIAL FOR POWERS.

Four of the Seven Judges Concur In the Reversal.

FIVE YEARS IN COURT.

Three Judges Unite In Dissenting Opinion, Written By Judge Paynter.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 6.—The Court of Appeals today reversed the judgment of the Scott Circuit Court in the case of Caleb Powers, the three times convicted Goebel murder conspirator, and remanded his case for a fourth trial. Four separate opinions were delivered by the seven judges.

According to the dissenting opinion of Judge Paynter, the reversal is on three grounds: First, the court refused to give the defendant time in which to discover and file additional grounds for a new trial; second because sentence was pronounced on the same day the verdict was returned; and third, because of the remarks of Attorney T. C. Campbell, representing the commonwealth, in his argument to the jury.

Three judges, Burnam, Barker and O'Rear, discuss in the separate opinion by Judge Barker, the Federal question of summoning the jurors from both political parties. Judge Barker holds that there is a Federal question involved in the appeal, but
